2. New Business

No new business.

3. Unfinished Business

Father John Gibbons' 50th anniversary as a priest celebration is on June 8th. All plans are in place and we are ready for this event. Father Joe informed the council that Liz Bracken is leaving the area and we will include her in this celebration with an ice cream cake.

Father Joe read the bulletin announcement for the spirituality ministry and there was a discussion of when to do a pulpit announcement for this ministry. Julie will prepare the announcement.

Leo explained the election process and the requirement for candidates to submit a picture and paragraph explaining their reason for wanting to be on the council.

The chair selection process for the new church is still in progress.

4. New Church Construction Project

Steel is scheduled for shipment this Friday. John is following up with the manufacturer and has been to the plant and will visit again to ensure progress is being made. Roofing on the classroom wing this Thursday, weather permitting. Once steel is erected, the roof will go on. Interior work is being done in the classroom wing. Steel delivery is causing the delay. Weather has delayed the curbing but it is scheduled to start this Thursday.

The meeting ended at 8:27 PM.
